GEIGER INTERNATIONAL

For more than 40 years, Geiger International has inspired the A&D community by pioneering the design and manufacture of architectural furniture for private offices and commercial interiors. Today, Geiger's excellent reputation for design, engineering and craftsmanship continues to enhance business interiors with an elegant and intelligent portfolio of product solutions for the modern workplace. From executive and professional personal offices to collaborative and productive environments for knowledge workers, Geiger delivers excellent value and return on investment through timeless design, superior materials, integrated technology and an unwavering commitment to quality, ecology and customer service.

PETRI CASEGOODS

CLASSIC FLEXIBILITY FOR MODERN BUSINESS. At once distinguished and contemporary, Petri Casegoods offers a highly versatile furniture platform for corporate workspaces. Designed by Manfred Petri, the collection lends itself to contemporary and transitional settings alike, depending on finish details. Elegantly proportioned desks, returns, storage units and work walls, clad in legendary Geiger veneers, support an array of work styles, while discreet wire management preserves the clutter-free aesthetic. When corporate image is imperative, look to Petri to accommodate every workspace from the executive to the administrator with equal refinement and dignity.
