

Impromptu™ lounge seating flourishes in today's fast-paced environment of creativity. The new economy requires that all office tools, including furniture, be prepared to serve in multiple capacities. Impromptu lounge seating is up to that challenge. With the pivot and lift of its occasional tablet, Impromptu changes from a classically designed, contemporary lounge piece to a powerful workstation. Available on casters with either a large or a small tablet in either right or left variations, Impromptu is also available on feet and with or without a tablet. Designed by Timothy deFiebre.
